FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAIRFAX, VA – Katie Gloe, a Loudoun County High School senior, is this year's recipient of the Fairfax Volleyball Club's $2,500 college scholarship. Dave Lacey, Director of FVC's Youth Activities, presented Gloe with the scholarship at her school's awards ceremony on Thursday, June 4.

Each year, the Fairfax Volleyball Club awards one $2,500 scholarship to a Northern Virginia high school student to help defray the cost of college tuition and books.

Gloe, who will graduate from Loudoun County High School in June and will be attending Virginia Tech this Fall, was selected from more than a dozen applicants. She is currently the assistant coach for a 13-and-under team with the Northern Virginia Volleyball Association (NVAA). She has been a referee with Loudoun Youth Volleyball for three years and played all four years on her high school's volleyball team (serving as captain for three of those four years). Loudoun County High School's girls volleyball team won the state championships two of the four years Gloe played on the team.

In addition to dedicating a lot of time to sports, Gloe spends her time volunteering and studying. She volunteers at INOVA Loudoun Hospital and her church. She excels in the classroom and carries 4.3 GPA. She will participate in Virginia Tech's University Honors Program this Fall and plans to major in materials science and engineering.

The Fairfax Volleyball Club was founded in 1979 to serve the Northern Virginia volleyball community by coordinating year-round indoor adult recreational league play. In addition to coordinating indoor leagues, which play at the Dulles Sportsplex and Fairfax County schools, the club also coordinates outdoor grass tournaments each summer.
